

NORTH DAKOTA FFA ASSOCIATION, INC.

CONSTITUTION AND BY - LAWS

(Revised 11/12/18)

(updated: 10/2020)

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I. Name and Purposes

Section A. The name of the association shall be "North Dakota FFA Association, Inc." a non-stock, non-profit corporation organized under Chapter 10-40, North Dakota Century Code. The principal place of business shall be the State Capitol, 15th Floor, Bismarck, ND.

Members are hereinafter referred to as "FFA members" and the letters "FFA" may be officially used to designate the organization, its units or members, thereof.

ARTICLE II. Objectives of the Organization

The objectives of the organization shall be consistent with Section 3 of the organizations federal charter, public law 105-225 (formerly pl 81-740).

The organization shall cooperate with National and State government agencies and officials for agricultural education in accomplishing the following objectives:

1. To be an integral part of the organized instructional programs in agricultural education which prepare students for a wide range of careers in agriculture, agribusiness, and other agriculture related occupations.
2. To strengthen the confidence of students in themselves and in their work by developing desirable work habits and the effective use of their time; by learning to assume responsibility; and by developing competencies in communications, human relations, and other social abilities leading to the intelligent choice of a career and successful employment or entrepreneurship in the agriculture industry.
3. To provide agriculture related programs and activities which will develop pride, responsibility, leadership, character, scholarship, citizenship, patriotism, thrift, and which will improve the economic, environmental, recreational and human resources of the community.
4. To encourage and recognize achievement in supervised agricultural experience programs, scholarship, leadership, and other individual and group activities by providing awards to deserving members and chapters.

ARTICLE III. Organization

Section A. The North Dakota FFA Association, Inc., is a state association, of, by, and for students enrolled in agricultural education programs. It shall consist of chartered local chapters in secondary schools having systematic instruction in agricultural education offered under the provisions of the Federal Vocational Education Legislation. Such chapter shall operate as an integral part of the instructional program of agricultural education.

Section B. Collegiate chapters may be chartered by the State FFA Association in two or four-year post-secondary institutions where agricultural courses are taught.

Each chartered collegiate chapter may adopt a constitution which shall not conflict with that of the national organization or the respective state association, elect officers and establish a program of activities.

Collegiate chapter members shall pay National FFA Organization dues.

Section C. Local FFA chapters may be organized in secondary schools where systematic instruction in agricultural education is given under the provisions of the Federal Vocational Education Legislation.

Section D. Members of local chapters shall meet, organize, and adopt a constitution and by-laws which shall not conflict with that of the State and National Constitutions, elect officers, develop a program of activities, and then apply to the State Advisor for membership in the State Association. Upon approval of the application by the State Executive Committee, the members of the local chapters may then be recognized as a part of the State FFA Organization.

ARTICLE IV. Procedure for Determining Standing of Local Chapters

Section A. A local chapter shall be considered to be in good standing with the State Association when the following general conditions are met:

1. All annual State and National dues have been paid by a date determined by the State Association.
2. All reports have been submitted as required by the State Association.
3. Provisions of the local constitution do not conflict with the State and National FFA Constitutions, and chapter activities are in harmony with the ideals and purposes of the National Organization.
4. The governing body of the State Association shall have the power to suspend local chapter charters upon receipt of evidence of infringements on the provisions of the State or the National FFA Constitutions. In the event any local chapter is not in good standing with the State Association at the time of the opening of the State Convention, the delegates in session at that convention shall have the power, upon the recommendation of the State governing body, to withdraw the charter and refuse such chapter official representation at the State Convention. When such action is taken, the chapter in question and the members thereof shall be denied the regular privileges of membership in the organization. Upon meeting the requirements for standing, a chapter may be reinstated by action of the State governing body.
5. In the event a local department of agricultural education in which a chartered chapter of FFA is located is being discontinued or has an absence of a certified agricultural education instructor, the chapter so involved may be permitted to operate officially for a period of 12 months from date of discontinuance of the department or loss of teacher. After the 12-month period the school district must submit annually a ND FFA Chapter Continuation form to the ND FFA Board of Directors. The board will review the submitted form and provide a ruling on the eligibly of the FFA Chapter. Local chapter charters must be surrendered to the State Advisor at the end of a 36-month period if a local department of agricultural education is not again in operation in the school at that time.

6. Chapters without seated delegates at the annual State FFA Convention will be deemed ineligible for participation in any State Convention activities. Those chapters will then go under review by the executive committee to determine chapter eligibility for future FFA events.

ARTICLE V. Membership

Section A. Membership in the State FFA Organization shall be of four kinds: (1) Active; (2) Alumni; (3) Collegiate; and (4) Honorary.

Section B . "Active Members" - To be eligible for active membership in a chartered FFA Chapter, a student must be enrolled in a middle school or secondary agricultural education program. In North Dakota this may include grades 7-12.

To become an active member and retain membership, a student must:

1. While in school, be enrolled in at least one agricultural education course during the school year and/or follow a planned course of study; either course must include a supervised agricultural experience program, the objective of which is preparation for an agricultural career.
2. Show an interest in the affairs of the organization by attending meetings, striving for degrees of membership and participating in other organized activities of the chapter.
3. Pay all current local, state and national dues by the date determined by the chapter.
4. Display conduct consistent with the ideals and purposes of the National FFA Organization.

A member may retain active membership until November 30, following the fourth National FFA Convention after graduation from high school. A member who is in good standing at the time he/she is inducted into the armed forces of the United States of America shall be in good standing during the period of active service without further payment of dues or attendance at meetings. Time spent in the armed forces shall not be considered as elapsed time in determining the maximum period of four conventions following graduation from high school or leaving high school. Members using of this waiver of service time for the purpose of maintaining active membership for application for advanced degrees of membership, must resume active participation within six months after having been honorably discharged from military service, indicating such a desire by paying of dues and attending meetings. Members participating in the six months' Armed Service Program shall be eligible for one full year of extended membership. No individual, however, may retain active membership beyond his/her 23rd birthday.

Section C . "Alumni and Supporters Membership" - Membership shall be open to former active members, collegiate, and honorary FFA members, present and former professional agricultural educators, parents of FFA members, and others interested in, and in support of the FFA.

Section D. "Honorary Membership" - Farmers, school superintendents, principals, members of boards of education, chapter advisors, teachers, staff members in agricultural education, business people, and others who are helping to advance agriculture education /agribusiness and the FFA, and who have rendered outstanding service, may be elected to honorary membership by a majority vote of the members present at any regular meeting or convention.

Honorary membership shall be limited to the Honorary Chapter FFA Degree in the local chapter, Honorary State FFA Degree in the State Association, and the Honorary American FFA Degree in the National Organization.

ARTICLE VI. Degrees and Privileges of Active Membership
