AGRICULTURAL PRODUCE DEPARTMENT

Products, Fruit, and Vegetables exhibits are in FFA Hall.

Processed Meats exhibits are in Theater, attached to FFA Hall.

DIVISION – AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS

Honey – Evaluated on the following criteria: body, density, flavor and aroma, color, clarity, freedom from impurities and with suitable container of correct volume. Attach entry tag with a string tied around the neck of the pint jar.

Eggs – Evaluated on size, shape, color, uniformity, shell density and appearance. Eggs should be brushed or wiped clean with cloth and all stains removed. Do not wash eggs. Display eggs with pointed end down and rounded end up. Exhibit 1 dozen eggs in a common egg case.

Preparation of Fleece – Spread out the fleece on a clean table or floor, skin side down, taking care not to pull or open fleece as it is handled. The fleece will look like a pelt or hide. At this stage, before rolling or tying, remove all heavy tags, stained wool, and obvious foreign matter. Rolling the fleece takes four easy steps: (1) Begin at one side and loosely fold 8” to 10” of the edge toward the center of the fleece. (2) Do the same on the other side, but fold toward the center two times - until the twice folded portion lies on top of the first fold. (3) Fold in the head wool. (4) Roll the entire fleece from the breech toward the shoulder and long side wool. Fleece is now ready to be tied. Using paper fleece twine, wrap it in two directions and tie as you would a package. Do not use baler twine, or colored rope/string as the dye may seep into the fleece, rendering it worthless. There should be no loose ends hanging from the fleece. It should be loose enough to make judging easy yet compact enough to prevent it from falling apart when handled. Exhibit the fleece in a large brown/black/white 30-gallon plastic bag can liner.

1. Members can exhibit one item per class.

To make a small grain sheaf - Select uniform high-quality plants and cut them off close to the roots so as to get the full length of the straw. Spread the grain plants out in a sheltered area and allow to dry for one day. Strip off all leaves, taking care not to break the straw in handling. Form a core of 30 to 40 stems, and then place the other stems around the core to form a sheaf with a seven – nine-inch circumference (around) at a point halfway between the heads and the butt. Sheaves measuring under seven inches circumference will be disqualified. Tie the bundle firmly in at least three places, using cord which will not cut the straw. Form the crown (head) in a rounded shape by moving the core up and down. Cut off the butt squarely. Tie ribbon around the sheaf (covering the cord) and hang the sheaf with heads down until exhibited.

To make a forage/hay sheaf/bundle – Select the leafiest type to be found in the field and cut close to the ground. Do not strip a single leaf or branch from the stem as forage should retain its color and leaves. In making up show bundles, select those individual stems that have retained the most and best leaves with their color. Make bundles from four to six inches in diameter (across) or 9 - 12 inches in circumference (around) at a point halfway up the stem. Tie securely in three or four places. Sheaves/bundles measuring under nine inches in circumference will be disqualified. For forage judged on seed production, select stalks showing maximum seed development. Do not present samples which are excessively dry.

Field corn, Sunflower – corn sheaves must contain six stalks tied in four places. Sunflower sheaves must contain six stalks with leaves stripped and again tied in four places. (remove roots)

Crambe/Canola – displayed with lower leaves stripped, seven – nine-inch circumference, tie in three places.

Safflower – sheaves must contain at least 12 stalks with lower leaves stripped. Tie in three places.

Field Beans, Soybeans, Field Peas – Leaves should remain on the stem and the bundle should be 10 to 12 inches in circumference. Tie the bundle in three places.
